

Use music to address...

Social Skills

sing conversational questions take turns with instruments teach non-verbal greetings with a song alternate leading and following

Emotional Skills

write social story songs to teach coping skills for specific scenarios play instruments to represent various emotions/behaviors sings songs that name various emotions, and coping skills write songs with prompts to discuss scenarios and feelings and remember...

when working with kiddos with special needs:

simplify concepts

teach strategies

practice scenarios

repeat!

